

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
 Friday 23rd August – Sunday 25th August 2019
 Program Schedule and Maps

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
 PEKING UNIVERSITY

Friday 23rd August 2019

8.00am – 8.40am	Registration Opens SSB Lecture Theatre 200 Foyer (A02)
8.40am – 9.30am	Opening Ceremony Welcome to Country, conducted by Uncle Allen Madden, Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council Conference Opening: Dr Michael Spence, Vice-Chancellor and Principal Welcome: Prof Annamarie Jagose, Dean, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences Prof Liu Shusen, Director at Australian Studies Centre, Peking University SSB Lecture Theatre 200 (A02)
9.30am – 10.15am	Keynote Speaker: Alexis Wright (Introduction by Nicholas Jose) A SELF-GOVERNING LITERATURE: WHO OWNS THE MAP OF THE WORLD? SSB Lecture Theatre 200 (A02)
10.15am – 11.15am	Special Event: Documentary Launch (Introduction by Alexis Wright) CLARENCE WALDEN: GANGALIDDA MAN FROM QUEENSLAND'S GULF OF CARPENTARIA SSB Lecture Theatre 200 (A02)
11.15am – 11.45am	Morning Tea and Book Display Tables MacLaurin Hall, Quadrangle Building (A14)
11.45am – 12.30pm	Keynote Speaker: Gauri Viswanathan (Introduction by Vanessa Smith) BROKERED SITES OF EXCHANGE: COLONIAL EDUCATION AND THE POSTCOLONIAL NOVEL SSB Lecture Theatre 200 (A02)
12.30pm – 1.30pm	Lunch and Book Display Tables MacLaurin Hall, Quadrangle Building (A14)
	Section 1: Imag(In)ing The Global South/Writing from The Global South Venue: Education SR 409 (A35)	Section 2: Transnational Literatures Venue: Education SR 625 – 626 (A35)	Section 3: Global South, World Literatures and Market Forces Venue: Education SR 524 (A35)	Section 4: Beyond World Literatures Venue: Education SR 530 (A35)
1.30pm – 2.00pm	Panel 1: China in The World Panel Moderator: Josh Stenberg (University of Sydney)	Panel 1: Japanese Sinitic Poetry as Exophonic Literature Panel Moderator: Matthew Fraleigh (Bandeis University)	Panel 1: Ecocriticism and The Global South Panel Moderator: Clara Sitbon (University of Sydney)	Guest Speaker Maraea Rakuraku (Writer, New Zealand) Writing into Landscapes Unfriendly from The Margins into The Glare of Light
	Guest Speaker Nicholas Jose (Writer, University of Adelaide) Antipodean China: Imagining A Literary Space	Yoshitaka Yamamoto (National Institute of Japanese Literature) Judging A Poem by Its Title: The Exophonic Significance of Poem Titles in Japanese Sinitic Poetry	Ju (Writer, Yangon) Eco Criticism in Myanmar Literature

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
 (cont'd) Friday 23rd August – Program Schedule

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
 PEKING UNIVERSITY

2.00pm – 2.30pm	Liu Shusen (Peking University) Zhao Jingshen And China's Initial Study of Australian Literature as World Literature	Rintaro Goyama (Keio University) The Names of Native Flowers and Sinitic Poetry in Early Modern Japan: Focusing on The Relation with Knowledge in The Field of Herbal Medicine	Charlotte Mackay (University of Melbourne) Diasporic Memory and The Environment in The Works of Contemporary Cameroonian Writer Léonora Miano.	Panel 1: Moving Across the Screen: World Literatures and Cinema Panel Moderator: Michelle Royer (University of Sydney) Christina Kkona (Aarhus University) From 'Fingersmith' To 'The Handmaiden': Queerness and Cross-Cultural Adaptation
2.30pm – 3.00pm	Michelle Cahill (University of Wollongong) Bloomsbury's Chinese Gaze Reversed	Riko Fukushima (Tezukayama Gakuin University) "Hai-Tai-Shi": Humorous Sinitic Poems Written by Japanese Poets	Evelyn Corr (University of Sydney) What Will We Leave Our Daughters? Teleological Conflict in Indigenous Climate Poetics	Guadalupe Escobar (University of Nevada, Reno) Reframing the Family Tree In 'Children of Diaspora'
3.00pm – 3.30pm	Anna Stecher (LMU Munich) Adapting Bandung. Chinese Narratives of the 1955 Conference. A Study Based on Zhou Enlai Biographies	Noriko Niina (Bukkyo University) Sinitic Poetry Composition as A Step Toward Advancement in Local Society and Politics
3.30pm – 4.00pm	Afternoon Tea and Book Display Tables MacLaurin Hall, Quadrangle Building (A14)
4.00pm – 4.30pm	Mingwen Xiao (Sun Yat-Sen University) "Global South" And "Global North" Within East Asia: Alternative Narrative of Heroism and Patriotism in Mo Yan's Red Sorghum		Bonaventure Munganga (University of New South Wales) The Ecological Thought, Epistemic and Ethical Issues in Indigenous Australian Speculative Fictions	Kshama Kumar (University of New South Wales) The Community, The State and The Politics Of "Tension" In 'Dweepu'
4.30pm – 5.00pm	Thomas Moran (Monash University) Nostalgia for The Future: Utopian Reflections in Hu Fang's 'Dear Navigator' (2014)		Mengtian Sun (University of Melbourne) The Globe and The South: Imaginations of Globalization in Science Fiction on The Global South	Laetitia Nanquette (University of New South Wales) Why Is Iranian Literature Not Global?
5.15pm – 6.45pm	Special Event: Writers' Plenary Southern Reflections: Writers on Literary Geography Welcoming: Duncan Ivison (Deputy Vice-Chancellor Research) Moderators: Vrasidas Karalis (University of Sydney) Zhao Baisheng (Peking University) SSB Lecture Theatre 200 (A02)
7.00pm – 8.45pm	Reception MacLaurin Hall, Quadrangle Building (A14)

Saturday 24th August 2019

	Section 1: Imag(In)ing The Global South/Writing from The Global South Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3110 (H70)	Section 2: Transnational Literatures Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3020 (H70)	Section 3: Global South, World Literatures and Market Forces Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3180 (H70)	Section 4: Beyond World Literatures Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3010 (H70)	Language Streams: Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3080 (H70)
9.00am – 9.30am	Panel 2: Australia In the Network of Cultures Panel Moderator: Vanessa Smith (University of Sydney)	Panel 2: Bypassing the Metropole: New Comparativism And Transverse Vectors for Minority World Literatures Panel Moderator: Nicole Moore (University of New South Wales Canberra)	Panel 2: New Approaches to Transnational and World Literature Panel Moderator: Rebecca Suter (University of Sydney)	Panel 2: Beyond the Canons: World Literatures and The Popular Genres Panel Moderator: Léa Young (University of Sydney)	French Panel Moderator: Michelle Royer (University of Sydney)
	Didier Coste (Université Bordeaux Montaigne) From Brobdingnag To the Billabong, And Back: Mapping A Global South with Peter Carey.	Dr Beibei Chen (East China Normal University) Translated Poetics and The Fractious Translation Zone in Australian Poetry Translation	Ben Etherington (Western Sydney University) Against Network Thinking: Critical Humanism and Speculative Literary Totalities	Isabelle Hesse (University of Sydney) World Literature, Political Thrillers, and the Semi-Periphery in Diaspora Writing from Israel/Palestine	Guest Speaker Isa Qala (Writer, New Caledonia) Oralitéécriture Et Littérature
9.30am – 10.00am	Mark Piccini (Queensland University of Technology) 'I Am Not Yet Satisfied': Desire and Violence in The Works of Christos Tsiolkas	Nicole Moore (University of New South Wales Canberra) Transverse Vectors: Australian Literature Beyond the Anglophone World	Adam Morton (University of Sydney) A Geography of Blood Meridian	Max Bledstein (University of New South Wales) A Fantastical Event: The Historical Graphic Narrative of Marjane Satrapi's 'Chicken with Plums'	Screening of The Short Film 'L'enfant Wetr' And Discussions with Isa Qala
10.00am – 10.30am	Tiao Wang (Harbin Institute of Technology) Good and Evil: Thomas Keneally And the Representation of The Global North	Sandeep Singh (University of New South Wales Canberra) Conceptualizing the Postcolonial Cold War in Southeast Asia Through the Literary: Heterotemporality, Region, Asymmetry	Dashiell Moore (University of Sydney) World Literature and The Glissantian Encounter	Faris Yothasamuth (University of Sydney) We Are Not Them: Thai Imperialism and Racism in The Translations of English Popular Novels in The Early Twentieth Century	Soumaya Abdellatif (Ajman University) Gender: The Foreign Origins of The Concept and Its Hard Meaning in The Tunisian Socio-political Context
10.30am – 11:00am		Priyanka Shivadas (UNIVERSITY OF NEW SOUTH WALES Canberra) Languaging In Indigenous Australian And Indian Poetry – A Trans-Indigenous Approach	Alya Ansari (University of Minnesota) Discursive Disruptions: Hybridity as Historiographic Method	Nisha Ghatak (University of Auckland) The Other Side Of 'La Nuit Bengali': A Critical Analysis of Maitreyi Devi's 'It Does Not Die: A Romance'	Etienne Naveau (Institut National Des Langues Et Civilisations Orientales, Paris) « Nh Dini (1936-2018) Ou L'écriture De Soi D'une Femme Indonésienne »
11.00am – 11.30am	Morning Tea and Book Display Tables ABS Level 3 Foyer (H70)

11.30am – 12.00pm	Natalie Edwards (University of Adelaide) And Christopher Hogarth (University of South Australia) Franco-Australian Transnational Literature	Panel 3: Translational Literature and Writings from The Diaspora Panel Moderator: Benjamin Nickl (University of Sydney) Sharmani Patricia Gabriel (Universiti Malaya) Rerouting the Nanyang: From “Diasporic Local” To Transnational Imaginaries		Yuri Takahashi (Australian National University) A Sense of Justice as Seen in Myanmar’s Popular Literature – Min Thein Kha And His Novel ‘Goddess Manusari’	Chinese Panel Moderator: Josh Stenberg (University of Sydney) Hong Shu-Ling (National Taiwan University) 台灣詩人利玉芳的南方經驗和日常書寫
12.00pm – 12.30pm	Paola Scrolavezza (University of Bologna) Re-Imaging the South Through Global F(r)ictions: ‘Farewell, My Orange’ By Iwaki Kei	Fiona Lee (University of Sydney) Inter-Imperial Entanglements and The Cold War: Sinophone-Anglophone Modernist Encounters in The Contemporary Global Novel	Michael Paton (University of Sydney) The Global South and The Concept Shi 勢: A Dili 地理 Perspective	Sabal Phyu Nu (Writer, Yangon) The Decline of Novelists in Myanmar – An Analysis from the 1960s To Today	Jin Haina (Communication University of China) 澳大利亚电影在中国的翻译与传播
12.30pm – 1.00pm		Meng Xia (University of New South Wales) Writing Memory from Transcultural Interstices in Chinese Diasporic Fictions	Sai Chandra Mouli Timiri (Osmania University) Translating Cultures: An Indian Experience	Panel 3: South and North: Imaginings and Intersections Panel Moderator: Zhao Baisheng (Peking University) Maggie Ann Bowers (University of Portsmouth) Returning to Magical Realist Political Satires in The Post-Truth Age	Xu Yan (Western Sydney University) 中国文化的可译性: 解析葛浩文翻译莫言作品《丰乳肥臀》中的意象隐喻为例
1.00pm – 2.00pm	Lunch and Book Display Tables ABS Level 3 Foyer (H70)
2.00pm – 2.30pm	Panel 3: Arabic Literature and The World. Decolonial Aesthetics for An Epistemology of Freedom Panel Moderator: Lucia Sorbera (University of Sydney) Omar Yahaya (University of Ghana) مهخفض انبحث	Xiaoyang Li (University of Canterbury) Gender, Sexuality, And Salvation in Wartime China: A Reading of Yan Geling’s ‘The Flower of War’	Panel 3: Webtoon, Webnovel And Fan Video Platform Cultures in Asia And the Expanding Digital Creative Economy Panel Moderator: Brian Yecies (University of Wollongong) Xiang (Tony) Ren (Western Sydney University) Transmedia Online Literature in China and Global Platform Ecosystems	Tanutrushna Panigrahi (IIIT-Bhubaneswar) The Act of Writing: Revisiting the Narrative Powers of The Global South Through ‘The Travels of Dean Mahomet’ And ‘The Interesting Narrative of The Life of Olaudah Equiano’	Section 1 Panel 4: Food in Literature Panel Moderator: Kestity Pringgoharjono (Indonesia) Kestity Pringgoharjono (Indonesia) ‘Serat Centhini’, A Perspective of a Culinary Journey Through Java
2.30pm – 3.00pm	Shereen Abouelnaga (Cairo University) Re-Reading the Narratives of Motherhood From ‘The Global South’	Dandan Chen (State University Of New York At Farmingdale) Travel, Writing, And Self-Exile Towards World Literature	Aegyung Shim (University of Wollongong) Webtoon Literary Adaptations and Their East Asian Encounters	Umme Salma (University of Queensland) ‘Sultana in Skirts?’ Reflections on Fictional Migration in Studying A Cluster of Bangladeshi Novels in English	Elisabeth Yane Ardanesywar (University of Indonesia) Food as The Identity Reconstruction Mechanism in Leila S. Chudori’s ‘Pulang’

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
 (cont'd) Saturday 24th August 2019 – Program Schedule

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
 PEKING UNIVERSITY

3.00pm – 3.30pm	Elliott Colla (Georgetown University) Incitement and Mobilization: Movement Poetry in Egypt	Alexandra Kurmann (Macquarie University) Transdiasporic Reappropriation of The Historiographical Metanarrative in Contemporary Vietnamese-Francophone and American Literature	Dingkun Wang (Shanghai Jiao Tong University) The Complexity of Translation in The Fan-Made Video Meeting Sheldon (2014)	Nicole Perry (University of Auckland) Fairy Tale Forests and Black Pearl Inhabitants: German Women Writing the South Pacific.	Dyah Pitaloka (University of Sydney) Edible Activism: Wild Plant (Pangan Liar), Benguk and Tapioca Gruel as A Source of Agency, Resilience and Identity
3.30pm – 4.00pm	Afternoon Tea and Book Display Tables ABS Level 3 Foyer (H70)
4.00pm – 4.30pm	Shima Shahbazi (University of Sydney) Microhistory Narratives, Alternative Epistemologies and Epistemic Credibility: A Comparative Study of Haifa Zangana's 'City of Widows' and Leilah Nadir's 'Orange Trees of Baghdad'	Renran Zhang (Guangdong University of Foreign Studies) A Life on The Hyphenated Bicultural Identity in Virgil Suárez's 'Going Under'	Brian Yecies (University of Wollongong) Southeast Asian Digital Transcreators On Korean Webtoon Platforms	Panita Silapavithayadilok (University of Sydney) The Need of The Other: The Vietnam War in Tiziano Terzani's Itinerary
4.30pm – 5.00pm	Jonas Elbousty (Yale University) Arabic Literature in World Literature and The Issues of Canonicity	Hiqma Nur Agustina (Universitas Islam Syekh-Yusuf) Women and Repression in The Writings of Afghanistan Diasporic Writers		Apala Das (University of Toronto) The Role of Askesis In Indian Nationalist Thought
5.00pm – 5.30pm	Gretchen Head (Yale-NUS College) Title of Paper: Reading Arabic Transnationally: Contested Borders of Literary Belonging Across the Sahara	Marie Rose Arong (University of The Philippines Cebu) Little Brown Americans: Narratorial Ambivalence in Filipino Anglophone Novels Bienvenido Santos' You Lovely People and N.V.M. Gonzalez's The Bamboo Dancers		Thomas Nulley-Valdes (Australian National University) Semi-Universal Trajectories from The Global South: A Comparative Casanovian Study
5.30pm – 7.00pm	Public Event Global South Salon: A Poetry Reading and Performance By Mascara's Literary Review Moderator: Dr Toby Fitch (Department of English) ABS Lecture Theatre 1110 (H70)		Public Event Discussion Forum: "China's Place in World Literature" / 作家专题研讨会 Event Presented in Mandarin, By the China Studies Centre (CSC), School of Languages and Cultures (SLC) Moderator: Dr Xing Dong, SBS Mandarin Producer ABS Lecture Theatre 1060 (H70)

Sunday 25th August 2019

	Section 1: Imag(In)Ing The Global South/Writing from The Global South Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3110 (H70)	Section 2: Transnational Literatures Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3020 (H70)	Section 1: Imag(In)Ing The Global South/Writing from The Global South Venue: ABS Seminar Room 3180 (H70)
9.00am – 9.30am	Panel 5: On Latin American And Caribbean Literature Panel Moderator: Ruben Perez-Hidalgo (University of Sydney) Carlos Gamerro (Argentina) Cannibals in Paris: The Selk'nam From Tierra Del Fuego At The 1889 Universal Exhibition	Panel 4: Translation, Translatability and Transnational Imaginaries Panel Moderator: Cat Moir (University of Sydney) Anthony Uhlmann (Western Sydney University) Other Worlds: Literature and Common Notions	Panel 6 Southeast Asian Literature Panel Moderator: Novi Djenar (University of Sydney) Nazry Bahrawi (Singapore University of Technology and Design) Theorising the Bahasaphone In World Literature
9.30am – 10.00am	Cristian Aliaga (Chubut, Argentina) and Fernanda Peñaloza (University of Sydney) Mapuche Women Poetry: Voicing the Unspeakable	Sutida Wimuttikosol (Thammasat University) From the Global South to The Global South: Thailand And World Literatures in Translation	I Nyoman Darma Putra (University of Udayana) Mediating Modernity: One Hundred Years of Modern Balinese Literature
10.00am – 10.30am	Ana Fernandez (University of Ottawa) Re-Presentando "Minoridades" Desde Una Perspectiva Socio-Crítica En El (Con)Texto Argentino: Shunko (1949; 1960), Ceferino Namuncurá (1972) Y Verónico (1988)	Ying Xin Show (National Chiao Tung University, Taiwan) "Malaya, My Lovely Hometown": On the Early Chinese Malayan Writers and Translators Wei Bei Hua/Lu Poh-Ye	Elisabeth Yane Ardanesywar (University of Indonesia) Fiksi Sebagai Representasi Diri Perempuan Urban: Transformasi Cerpén Majalah Perempuan 'Femina' Indonesia Edisi 2000-2019
10.30am – 11.00am	Cody Reynolds (University of Newcastle) The Art of Misrepresentation: Reclaiming Culture from Magical Realism's Commercial Exotics	Wanlin Li (Peking University, Beijing) Cultural Adaptability and Distinctness in The Transnational Adaptation Of 'Infernal Affairs'	Aquarini Priyatna (Universitas Padjadjaran) Subjectivity and Agency in Ratih Kumala's 'Gadis Kretek: Women in Tobacco Industry'
11.00am – 11.30am	Morning Tea ABS Level 3 Foyer (H70)
11.30am – 12.00pm	Mohamed Kamara (Washington And Lee University) The Odyssey of George Washington Black: Home and Its Discontents in Esi Edugyan's 'Washington Black'	Shane Carreon (University of The Philippines) "After the Fire": Resistance Through Translation and Retranslation	Eliza Victoria (University of Sydney) The Anti-Lovecraft, Or Towards a Filipino Cosmic Horror: Representations of The Cosmos and The Philippine Drug War in Two Filipino Horror Stories.
12.00pm – 12.30pm	Ziortza Gandarias Beldarrain (Boise State University) The Basque Cultural Magazine Euzko-Gogoa: The Transoceanic Basque Will	Ziqing Lyu (University of Sydney) Assessing the Reception of a Translated Work in A Foreign Culture: A Corpus-Driven Analysis Of 'The Three Body Problem' Among English-Speaking Readers	Jeneth B. Borlasa (University of The Philippines, Cebu) Freighted Bodies: The Weight of History and Identity in Three Post-Colonial Novels
12.30pm – 1.00pm			Aaron Nyerges (University of Sydney) 'Isla De Sangre': Planetary Creations and Philippine Horror

*World Literatures and the Global South Conference
(cont'd) Sunday 25th August 2019 – Program Schedule*

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

1.00pm – 1:30pm			Naomi Cerisse Cammayo (University of Sydney) Art for Heart-Speak: Revisiting the Poetry of Filipina Lesbians in Independently Published Anthologies by Notable Lesbian Organizations in Manila
1.30pm – 2.30pm	Lunch ABS Level 3 Foyer (H70)
2.30pm – 3.15pm	Closing Address Zhao Baisheng (Peking University) "WE THE SOUTH": A NEW SOUTH-NORTH PARADIGM FOR GLOBAL LITERARY STUDIES ABS Lecture Theatre 1110 (H70)
3.15pm – 3.45pm	Afternoon Tea and Conference Close ABS Level 3 Foyer (H70)
6.30pm – 8.30pm	Conference Dinner – Adria Bar Restaurant Address: T.107 Cockle Bay Wharf, Darling Harbour NSW 2000

Maps and directions

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
23–25 August 2019, University of Sydney

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

Conference locations at the University of Sydney

Circled: Social Sciences Building, MacLaurin Hall, Education Building, Abercrombie Building

For an interactive campus map showing all buildings and amenities, please visit: sydney.edu.au/maps/campuses

Maps and directions

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
23–25 August 2019, University of Sydney

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

Social Sciences Building ↔ MacLaurin Hall

Friday, 23 August

Maps and directions

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
23–25 August 2019, University of Sydney

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

MacLaurin Hall ↔ Education Building

Friday, 23 August

Maps and directions

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
23–25 August 2019, University of Sydney

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

Education Building → Social Sciences Building

Friday, 23 August

For an interactive campus map showing all buildings and amenities, please visit: sydney.edu.au/maps/campuses

Maps and directions

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
23–25 August 2019, University of Sydney

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

Abercrombie Building

Abercrombie Business School, cnr of Codrington and Abercrombie, Darlingtown NSW 2006

Saturday, 24 August & Sunday, 25 August

Maps and directions

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
23–25 August 2019, University of Sydney

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

Abercrombie Building – Level 1

Saturday, 24 August & Sunday, 25 August

Maps and directions

World Literatures and the Global South Conference
23–25 August 2019, University of Sydney

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

北京大学
PEKING UNIVERSITY

Abercrombie Building – Level 3

Saturday, 24 August & Sunday, 25 August

